

September 26, 2017

<https://pbn.com/margulies-inducted-new-england-mortgage-bankers-hall-fame/>

Margulies inducted into New England Mortgage Bankers Hall of Fame

JERRY MARGULIES CELEBRATES his induction into the New England Mortgage Bankers Hall of Fame, with Lisa Topakian, left, loan officer at Home Loan Investment Bank, and Lisa Russo, an associate with RE/MAX Professionals. / COURTESY HOME LOAN INVESTMENT BANK

WARWICK – Home Loan Investment Bank last week announced Jerry Margulies has been inducted into the New England Mortgage Bankers Hall of Fame.

Margulies joined Home Loan Investment Bank in Warwick in 2014 after being in the mortgage industry for 40 years. He was inducted into the hall of fame during a ceremony that took place at Gurney's of Newport.

"We congratulate Jerry on this honor," said Brian J. Murphy, president and CEO of Home Loan Investment Bank. "His dedication to the industry and his customers is unparalleled and he continues to go above and beyond by mentoring the younger generations of mortgage bankers who benefit from his years of experience. We are so proud to have him on the Home Loan team."

Margulies, a North Attleboro resident and past president of the Rhode Island Mortgage Bankers Association, was previously president of Mansfield Mortgage Services Inc. He still serves on the board of directors at the Rhode Island trade group, and previously served as director of the Massachusetts Mortgage Association.

He's been honored with past awards, including "Broker of the Year" and "President's" awards, according to a press release.

Eli Sherman is a PBN staff writer. Email him at Sherman@PBN.com, or follow him on Twitter @Eli_Sherman.